Check Out Birdwatching Programs and Birding Backpacks at the Library

Henrico County Public Library is launching new Birding Backpacks for checkout on October 1 and offering Intro to Birdwatching programs as an opportunity to learn about birds and the fun hobby of birdwatching. The first half of these programs will be held indoors to share bird books and discover tips for spotting and identifying birds in the wild. Then the class will go for short walk near the library to look for birds in their natural habitat. Recommended for children 4-8 with an adult. Registration is available for those who need to borrow binoculars, but walk-ins are also welcome.

Nature Study: Intro to Birdwatching programs will take place:

Saturday, October 1, 10:30 a.m. at Libbie Mill Library
Saturday, October 8, 10:30 a.m. at Varina Area Library
Monday, October 10, 9:30 a.m. at Twin Hickory Area Library
Saturday, October 15, 10:30 a.m. at Tuckahoe Area Library

Additional backpacks will be made available throughout the month of October during our Intro to Birdwatching workshops. Visit henricolibrary.org/backpacks for more information.
