Mrs. Patricia S. O'Bannon, the Board of Supervisors representative from the Tuckahoe District, will host a town meeting on Wednesday, May 6, at 2:30 and 7:00 p.m. at the Gayton Branch Library, 10800 Gayton Road, Henrico, VA. The topic for discussion will be the planned renovations of the Gayton Branch Library that were included in the 2005 Henrico County Bond Referendum.

The purpose of the meeting will be to accept public input concerning the redesigned interior space that will provide a library collection better suited to the community needs, as well as expanded services for the public. The architects from BCWH and the library design consultant from Tappé will present information and architectural drawings regarding the proposed interior design.

The meeting is open to the public and interested citizens are invited to attend. Any questions may be forwarded to Jerry McKenna, Director of Henrico County Public Library, at 652-3200.
