Henrico County Public Library Hosts Henrico Historian, Dr. Louis Manarin

Henrico County Public Library is proud to host Dr. Louis H. Manarin, co-author of the revised edition of THE HISTORY OF HENRICO COUNTY with detailed text, images, and photographs. Dr. Manarin will speak and sign books at two Henrico County Public Library locations; Thursday, April 12, 5:30 p.m. at Tuckahoe Area Library, 1901 Starling Drive, Henrico, VA 23229, and Thursday, April 26, 5:30 p.m. at Varina Library, 2001 Library Road, Henrico, VA 23231. Books will also be available for sale.

Dr. Louis Manarin, historian and former state archivist of the Commonwealth of Virginia, is the author, co-author and editor of twelve books on Virginia and North Carolina history. THE HISTORY OF HENRICO COUNTY was revised and reprinted as a part of the County of Henrico's 400th Anniversary Commemoration. The book is available for purchase at all Henrico County Public Libraries and at selected locations of Henrico's Department of Recreation and Parks, including the Administrative Office, Belmont Recreation Center, Dabbs House Museum, Deep Run Recreation Center, and Meadow Farm Museum.

This event is open to the public. For more details, visit www.henricolibrary.org or call 501-5102.
