Henrico County Public Library to Host OverDrive's National Digital Bookmobile!

Henrico County Public Library is proud to host the 74-foot OverDrive Digital Bookmobile on Friday and Saturday, October 7 and 8, from 11 - 5 pm at the Tuckahoe Area Library parking lot, 1901 Starling Drive, Henrico, VA.

As part of OverDrive's national tour, this 74-foot, 18-wheel tractor-trailer is a high-tech update of many traditional bookmobiles that have served communities throughout the country for decades. The vehicle is equipped with broadband Internet-connected PCs, high definition monitors, premium sound systems, and a variety of portable media players. Hands-on learning stations will give visitors an opportunity to search Henrico library's digital media collections, use mobile devices, and download and enjoy eBooks, eAudiobooks, and more. Currently, eAudiobooks and eBooks are available to download now for free with a Henrico County Public Library card.

This event is open to the public. All Henrico Public Library cardholders will be eligible to win a Nook to be given away on both days sponsored by Friends of the Henrico County Public Library. Don't have a library card? Visit any of Henrico's public libraries today! For more details, go to www.henricolibrary.org.
