Henrico County Public Library presents the

HAUNTED HENRICO
SPOOKY READING CHALLENGE

Sep. 22 –Nov. 3 2025

Visit a haunted place in Henrico.	Read one book.	Listen to spooky or seasonal music on Hoopla.	Tell us what stories are scariest to you.	Carve a pumpkin or make spooky art based on a book.
Visit NoveList Plus for books to read this winter.	Take a walk while listening to a spooky story or podcast.	Submit one book review online.	Read a book with a black or orange cover.	Read a story or poem by Edgar Allan Poe.
Read a book by flashlight in a dark, cozy place.	Read a folk or fairy tale (398.2).	FREE SPACE	Watch a spooky or scary movie based on a book.	Read a book about spooky history.
Read a book nominated for a horror or mystery book award.	Make a top ten list of something.	Attend a program at the library.	Dress up in a literary-themed costume.	Tell scary stories in the dark.
Call our Spooky Storyline at 804-501-1946.	Borrow a cookbook and make a seasonal treat.	Read a story that gets your heart racing!	Read a spooky or scary short story.	Submit a My Next Read request for more book picks.

Collect a stamp for each activity you complete. Finish five in a row (left to right, up and down, or diagonal) and bring your sheet to the library for a small prize. Or register and track your progress online:

Henrico County Public Library

henricolibrary.org/hauntedhenrico